

TOP 5 NEIGHBOURHOODS TO VISIT IN LONDON

The highest ranked and talked about neighbourhoods in London - the ones the locals wish they lived in, where you and friends could while away a day gazing in shop windows or sipping tea and something stronger in cosy cafes casually people-watching

by Concierge 99

OUR CRITERIA:

- An iconic section of London that will give you insight into the culture and lifestyle of this great city
- Abundance of cafes, bars, restaurants, sights and interesting Londoners

1 LONDON BRIDGE

London Bridge and its surrounding area is a popular spot for Londoners to live. It boasts it all - history: Tower Bridge, Trendy: Bermondsey Street, Markets: Borough Market and Maltby Street. Shad Thames set alongside the river with cobblestone streets and converted warehouses is an ideal area to explore.

We suggest heading to Borough Market on a Saturday morning for a gastronomic delight of a breakfast and onwards to Maltby St market for the afternoon of drinking and more eating.

Tube stops: London Bridge, Borough

CAMDEN

Camden is a neighbourhood steeped in London's music scene popular with young and hip Londoners - spend the day in the Camden Lock market with enough food stalls to ensure you will have food envy no matter what you get. Wander amongst the boutiques and stalls selling handmade jewellery and other such treasures.

We suggest walking along or just relaxing by the stunning canal pathways - take a trip on a narrowboat all the way to Little Venice. Upon your return, explore the myriad of pubs and musical venues Camden has to offer.

Tube stops: Camden Town, Chalk Farm

SOHO

Incredible neighbourhood and the one to visit if you have only one day to explore the best of London. Imagine the decadence in days (not long) gone by - trendy cafes alongside sex shops, lining up outside risqué-themed cupcake shop to get into your favourite brunch spot. Great selection of restaurants, hotel bars and cafes throughout this bustling 'hood.

We suggest using Soho as your starting point - easy walking access to Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Buck Palace, Whitehall, etc.

Tube stops: Piccadilly Circus, Oxford Circus, Tottenham Court Road

MAYFAIR

If there's anywhere we Londoners aspire to live...think affluence, bespoke tailors, mansions, fancy cars...all present here in Mayfair, a beautiful residential and commercial neighbourhood of London. For all your high-end shopping needs, celebrity-spotting and to play the part by having drinks in the various gorgeous hotel bars, stroll around Mayfair and enjoy it all.

We suggest heading here around lunchtime on a workday - it's a wonderful playground of fashion, beauty and self-importance.

Tube stops: Oxford Circus, Bond Street, Marble Arch, Green Park

CITY OF LONDON

To view the scale of London's historic past, a stroll around the City of London is a must. Aka 'The Square Mile', it's home to London's financial and trading establishments. While the City was heavily damaged in WWII bombing, St. Paul's Cathedral was spared and it's worth a visit inside to listen to evensong or simply to gaze around.

We suggest exploring the neighbourhood on a weekday to witness the hustle and bustle similar to Wall St. Walk across the Millennium Bridge to the Tate Modern to continue your tour on the Southbank.

Tube stops: Monument, Bank, Mansion House, St.Paul's, Blackfriars
