1 CLOVER CLUB - COBBLE HILL

To many, the original and best, the one all others take their cue from; Clover Club will show up on any favourite list for Cocktails in Brooklyn. With a seasonal menu created by its own bartenders that takes advantage of the best ingredients available, there'll be plenty to try from spring to winter. With its dark interior and cosy back room fireplace, you won't want to step back outside the door, especially when you taste the delicious bar snacks like macaroni cheese and steak tartare.

2 EXTRA FANCY - WILLIAMSBURG

Part of the fun of drinking cocktails is the opportunity to discover their hilarious names making tongue-in-cheek references to pop culture, local legends or according to any whim of the mixologist. Enter: Extra Fancy, a casual New England seafood shack-inspired bar and restaurant with cool bartenders, great food and those famous cocktails. Apart from having to try each cocktail on the menu, make sure to get a Lobster Roll, deviled eggs and the honey buttered pancakes, omg...

3 LEYENDA - COBBLE HILL

While you're in Cobble Hill visiting Clover Club, pop in to nearby Leyenda, a Latin-inspired cocktail bar by some of the same crew. Come for the impressive collection of Central and South American spirits (tequila, mezcal, rum, pisco, etc.) and stay for the award-winning bartenders mixing unique drink after incredible drink for you. Take advantage of the roomy backyard for summer Brooklyn drinking, a serious pastime in this neck of the woods, and sample the bar snack menu filled with tasty treats.

4 MAISON PREMIERE - WILLIAMSBURG

Regulars boast of the fantastic raw oyster bar, seafood towers, busy 5pm happy hour (get there at 4:30pm for any hope of a seat) and the plethora of interesting and incredible tasting cocktails (house spirit is Absinthe) made with precision and skill by the friendly (but busy!) bartending staff. Enjoy the '20's atmosphere and stylish interior, elbow to elbow with a daily crowd of locals hoping to keep the place to themselves and the inevitable visitors who have found out the secret of this amazing place (no thanks to us!).

5 THE SHANTY - WILLIAMSBURG

When your bar is supplied with spirits from your own distillery, namely New York Distilling Company, you know the drinks are going to be top-notch, the ingredients on point and the attention to detail impeccable. With more focus on stellar ingredients than fixed recipes, chat with the mixologists to create a drink perfect for you and your tastes.
