

TOP 5 FUN BARS FOR GROUPS IN LONDON

When you're looking for a fun spot to meet friends and have great, tasty drinks with delicious food available as a bonus

by Concierge 99

OUR CRITERIA:

- Hand-picked locations by local Londoners in the know
- Mixture of styles - from super casual to getting on the list at the door
- Great drinks, wine and food guaranteed

1 EXPERIMENTAL COCKTAIL CLUB

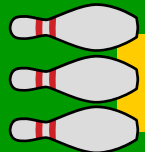

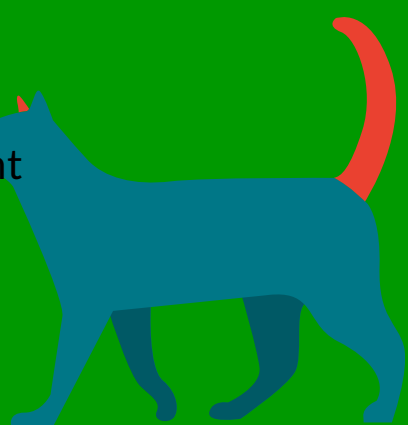

A hidden doorway in Chinatown leads you upstairs to a dark interior bar with expertly made cocktails.

Sit back and enjoy feeling smug that you found the bar at all while the hoi polloi wander around downstairs outside in the cold.

2 LE BEAUJOLAIS

The locals' favourite hidden gem in tourist central, Leicester Square. Make sure to order the Croque Monsieur, lamb chops or beef cheek if they have it on the ever-changing daily menu and make friends with the (all French) bar staff. The restaurant downstairs is members only but the bar upstairs is way more fun.

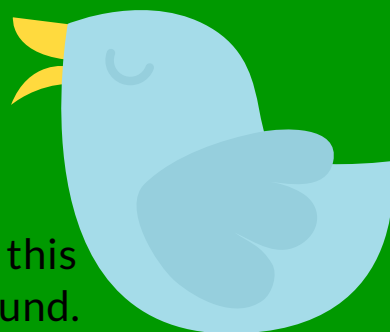

3 ANTICO, BERMONDSEY ST.

Come for the large gins (doubles are standard which is a nice change in London) from an extensive gin menu and their talented mixologists. Grab dinner in the restaurant upstairs to line the stomach before securing a corner of the bar for you and friends for the rest of the evening and enjoy the drinks and tunes.

4 GORDON'S WINE BAR

Popular spot for working Londoners to congregate in this busy bar that has outdoor (heated) seating all year round. Line your bellies with tasty sharing platters and if you're lucky to get some rare London sunshine, sneak your food and drink into the park alongside (don't worry, everyone else is doing it too).

5 BAR TOZINO, MALTBY ST.

Tucked away in Maltby Street, come for the fun atmosphere surrounded by Spanish patrons and staff (so you know it must be good). Great for when you're not yet ready to leave Maltby St Market just yet (which shuts its stalls down around 4pm when the food runs out).
