by Concierge 99

OUR CRITERIA:

- High-ranking reviews on TripAdvisor
- Access to all types of souvenirs including food (our favourite)
- Bring you to the coolest, most interesting parts of London

1 BOROUGH MARKET

Everyone will find countless stalls here they want to eat from - arrive hungry and make time to enjoy it all! Going early on a Saturday morning ensures you beat the crowds. Keep an eye out for tasty jars of jam, honey, mustard, oils etc. to take home as souvenirs.

TripAdvisor says:
"Foodie's heaven!" "A proper London market at its best"

2 CAMDEN LOCK MARKET

Besides the people-watching opportunities (the punk lives on in Camden) and the delicious stalls of food, Camden Lock is a haven for picking up exquisite jewellery, handmade items by local artists, trinkets and other souvenirs to take home as reminders of London.

TripAdvisor says:
"Amazing food, amazing items" "Unique experience"

5 PORTOBELLO ROAD MARKET

For that special, vintage and original souvenir, this is the market for you. Even luckier for you if you can arrange for some of the beautiful vintage furniture pieces to be sent home for you.

TripAdvisor says:
"Wonderful experience in one of the most famous markets in London"
