

TOP 5 SPANISH SIT-DOWN RESTAURANTS IN GRANADA

...giving you a taste of Andalucian cuisine

Granada is famous for its incredible tapas offering: a small dish that comes free with every drink. However, if you only resort to tapas, (and you can be easily fed each day by pottering around tapas bars), you'll miss out on some Andalucian dishes that are only served in restaurants. Join the Spanish on their late dinner out, you can't go wrong with these 5 options.

OUR CRITERIA:

- Great reviews and high ranking results on online forums
- Taste the best traditional dishes that Andalusia has to offer
- Avoid the usual touristy and over-priced places to give you a feel for local dining

1 ENTREBRASAS

If you're in the mood for meat, this is your next port of call. Check out the 'Exotic Menu' for more unusual steak options. You'll be well taken care of by the attentive staff and they have many vegetarian options so no one is left out.

TripAdvisor Says: "Generous portions!" "Great crowd, great drinks, great food" "Never had such a delicious steak before"

Address: Calle Navas, 27

2 EL TRILLO RESTAURANTE

Take a stroll in the Albaicín and aim for this cosy restaurant with well-presented Spanish dishes. If you're lucky, you'll have a view of the Alhambra but the view is only part of the enjoyment; instead, enjoy a few hours with a group of friends or family sharing plates, swapping desserts and tasting wine.

TripAdvisor Says: "Exceptionally good food with great flavours and interesting ingredients" "Good vegetarian choices" "Attentive service with lovely patio"

Address: Calle Callejon Aljibe de Trillo, 3

3 EL QUINTETO

Locals and visitors alike rave about this great restaurant run by friendly staff that go above and beyond to ensure you enjoy your dining experience. Book ahead and if you have any dietary requirements, they are great for handling gluten-free and vegetarian requests.

TripAdvisor Says: "Our best dining experience in Granada" "Delicious desserts" "Great food and not too expensive"

Address: Calle Solarillo de Gracia, 4

4 LA BOTILLERÍA

You'll always find this place teeming with locals so best to book a table if you expect to sit down with a large group. A sister restaurant to one of our Top5 Tapas Bars in Granada, Taberna La Tana, you can expect friendly atmosphere, large wine selection and homemade dishes made with local, fresh ingredients.

TripAdvisor Says: "A gem of a restaurant" "Charming staff and great dishes"

Address: Calle Varela, 10

5 EL PESCAITO DE CARMELA

A more modern take this one, they pride themselves on their excellent fresh fish menu, paella selection and extremely friendly staff. A multiple-course dinner with wine comes to a very reasonable price and as a supreme vote of confidence, you'll find repeat customers here.

TripAdvisor Says: "Service was perfect" "Great value" "Generous portions" "Amazing dining experience with high-quality products"

Address: Marques de Gerona, 12
